Internship Opportunity | Market Researcher

We are currently looking for a highly driven and enthusiastic candidate to join our team!

Meteco SA is recruiting to fill the position of Market Researcher. This is a tremendous and rewarding opportunity for students since you will be working in a dynamic and collaborative environment. The role of Market Researcher encompasses the management of the company's "Microsoft Dynamics CRM", a cloud-based Customer Relationship Management (CRM) system, developed by Microsoft. The duration of the internship will be 4 months, starting from Dec. 1st

The new comer will be responsible for:

- Managing and researching and data in the CRM.
- Often mine data to spot trends and find correlations among different data points.
- Data validation/cleansing
- Enrich data by researching online and offline sources
- Serve as a key resource for ensuring data integrity and ongoing facilitation of data cleansing as needed via various means, including but not limited to utilizing native CRM tools such as merges and de-duplication tools, as well as creating views and CRM reports as needed
- Perform systematic CRM updates as needed including bulk edits, record reassignments, back-end updates, etc. to ensure CRM information is kept current

For us, an ideal candidate would have the following skills/attributes:

- Not a specific academic background – your personality will set you apart.
- Fluency in English
- Firm understanding of any other language would be a plus
- Be a team player
- Independent, flexible and efficient work attitude
- Good knowledge of IT applications (MS Office)

What you should expect:

- ✓ Gain real work experience
- ✓ Have you own workstation
- ✓ Learn how to use Microsoft Dynamics CRM
- ✓ Be supported, helped and guided
- ✓ Have room to take initiatives
- ✓ Be asked for your opinion

What you should not expect:

- make copies or coffees
